

Welcome to your latest newsletter

Welcome to the latest edition of our newsletter, covering October, November and December. This edition sees us celebrating Black History Month and Carers' Rights Week in November with Carers Fairs across Surrey and time to listen to Luke Clements online.

This is the time of year when we encourage you all to book a flu jab and have enclosed your carer flu voucher with this newsletter. Keeping you well is so important to us especially when getting to see a doctor is very difficult so we are also promoting a chance to have a health check by phone.

We will be wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year so please keep in touch as we are always here to support you.

Rachel Brennan

Manager Adult Carers Support, Action for Carers Surrey

Our Carer Information Centre has now got a new title – the Action for Carers Helpline. The support from our expert and friendly Advisors remains the same, but we hope the new name better explains what we do! Please get in touch for any support needs.

Carer Health Checks

From 11th October we will be able to refer you for a Carer Health Check with a qualified health practitioner. These health checks will be carried out over the phone so you do not need to travel to an appointment.

If you are interested in being referred then please get in touch.

If you already have a named ACS Carer Support Advisors (CSA), who may be supporting you either 1-to-1 or in a group, simply ask them to refer you. Or you can call our Helpline on 0303 040 1234 or email carersupport@actionforcarers.org.uk

Support for carers at Surrey's hospitals

Surrey Hospitals: Carer Passports

In 2014, a man named John Gerrard was admitted to hospital in Manchester, for treatment of leg ulcers and he also had dementia. On his discharge, his daughter said "My father went into hospital articulate and able: he emerged a broken man". John's campaign was born, a campaign to give carers an identity and practical support while their loved ones are in hospital.

The Carers passport is a simple but effective tool that first allows carers to identify themselves to the hospital staff caring for their loved one and secondly to get practical assistance during the hospital stay. This may include open visiting times (so they may be present during ward rounds), reduced parking if they drive and a meal with the patient on the ward.

Contact the HCSA who works in a hospital near you (see opposite) to find out more about the Carer Passport offered in that hospital.

Carer to Carer

This section of our newsletter is for you to share with other carers updates, information and support YOU think would be helpful or fun. For example, ways to keep active – or sane! Interesting, calming hobbies, or de-stressing activities, we're keen to hear from you! Please email any items you wish to be included to carertocarer@actionforcarers.org.uk.

Destress with Zentangles

Zentangles is an easy-to-learn, relaxing, and fun way to create beautiful images by drawing structured patterns.

The patterns are called tangles. You create tangles with combinations of dots, lines, simple curves, S-curves and orbs. These simple shapes are the 'Elemental Strokes' in all Zentangle art. These patterns are drawn on small pieces of paper called 'tiles'.

It is a very easy as you only need a black pen and a small square piece of white paper.

It allows us to be creative and distract ourselves to relax. It can be 5 minutes or longer – it is up to you. You do not have to be artistic to enjoy it!

There are lots of ideas on the internet and it's great for children and also people of all ages who are very anxious or worried by upsetting thoughts. Drawing the tangles helps distract yourself away from the unhelpful thoughts so the smaller the tangle the more you have to concentrate and focus.

Have a go! I use mine to make cards and gift tags.

This edition's carer-recommended book is 'The Book of Joy' by His Holiness the Dalai Lama & Archbishop Desmond Tutu

Nobel Peace Prize Laureates His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Archbishop Desmond Tutu survived more than 50 years of exile and the soul-crushing violence of oppression. Despite their hardships – or, as they would say, because of them – they became two of the most joyful people on the planet.

This book captures their week together, and their sharing of confronting the obstacles of joy (grief, stress, anger, illness). The Archbishop never claimed sainthood, and the Dalai Lama considers himself a simple monk. In this unique collaboration, they offer us the reflection of real lives filled with pain and turmoil in the midst of which they have been able to discover a level of peace, of courage, and of joy.

Do you have a book to share? Please email your suggestion to: carertocarer@actionforcarers.org.uk

Knit & Natter – a carer tells her story

While in my two caring roles, I never had time for the pleasures in life, but wish I made time, one being knitting and crocheting. I wasn't over keen to join the Knit & Natter group, but was in need of meeting and speaking to new/different people.

I was made to feel welcome straight away and so did the other ladies in the group, each showing how we were getting on with our projects.

I was pleasantly surprised with all abilities and levels, of knitting or crocheting.

I started off knitting just squares for a blanket and the other ladies gave me advice on where I could get wool.

Everyone was so helpful and helping one another, with just about everything! I'm so looking forward to the next session...

Ever considered becoming a ACS Trustee?

Action for Carers is led by a team of volunteer Trustees – all either carers, former carers, or professionals with a special interest in caring. The Trustees share ultimate responsibility for ACS as a charity. They direct how it's managed and run – and ensure it does what it was set up to do.

Being a Trustee is a really rewarding and interesting role. We have a great team of Trustees currently, but would be interested in new approaches from people with direct experience of caring for a family member or friend (within the last five years).

You can find out more here www.actionforcarers.org.uk/about-us/our-team/our-trustees/become-an-ac-s-trustee/ If you're interested, please get in touch.

Our National Trust pilot scheme has been well received and all the free tickets are being used for a well-deserved break from caring.

The pilot ends at the beginning of November. We will then send out a short evaluation form which we would appreciate you completing. Your feedback as to how beneficial this has been will help us discuss with the NT the possibility of more properties joining the scheme and maybe nationwide! Keep visiting and enjoying!

Dementia Monitoring

The TIHM Monitoring Service is a free NHS service to remotely monitor the health of both people with dementia/mild cognitive impairment or diagnosed anxiety/depression and their carers.

The service combines easy-to-use remote monitoring devices installed at home, with a clinically-led Monitoring Team to reassure people about their health, alert them to potential health issues and, where necessary, ensure they receive prompt treatment and support. The team is available daily, 8am-8pm.

Managing Emotions Programme: courses for carers

Surrey and Borders NHS are offering a short, easy to access course that is designed to help carers across who are supporting a person who is experiencing difficulties in managing and controlling complex emotions. The person they are supporting may have a diagnosis of personality disorder or they may be experiencing some of the traits that can be related to this condition.

The course, Supporting a Person with Emotional Regulation Difficulties, describes the difficulties experienced by a person who can find it hard to manage or regulate their emotions. They may, for example, react disproportionately to a situation, engage in risk-taking behaviour, or find it difficult to adopt positive coping strategies to manage intense emotional triggers.

The purpose of this course is to increase carers' understanding and knowledge of emotional dysregulation and to help them develop coping strategies that they can use to support themselves and the person they are caring for.

Flu jabs

Flu season will soon be with us and carers are being encouraged to get their flu jab. These are free, and protect you as well as the person you care for. The flu vaccine is a safe and effective vaccine. It's offered every year on the NHS to help protect people at risk of getting seriously ill from flu as it's the best protection against flu and its complications.

The flu season generally lasts from October to March, and the best time to have the flu vaccine is in the autumn or early winter before flu starts spreading.

Your Flu Jab Voucher is enclosed – a printed copy if you receive a posted newsletter, or as a link if you've been emailed.

You can ask for a flu jab at your GP practice, or take your Voucher to your nearest participating community pharmacy, there will be no charge. The Voucher 'proves' you are a carer, and are therefore entitled to a free vaccination.

Communication in the NHS (see also Consultations p2)

The NHS in Surrey is looking at ways in which it can help patients and their clinicians – GPs and consultants as well as physios, nursing staff, etc better communicate with each other.

We all want to manage our health better and get quality care. And it should be easy to talk to your health professionals about your needs as well as look at your records, or make or change an appointment. But that's not always easy. It can be hard to keep track of appointments and very frustrating having to re-tell your condition. We're all busy and no one wants a long wait for results, travel across town for an appointment, or have a long wait just to make or change an appointment.

Their Digital Navigator project is looking at how digital technologies might better support patients and those who care for them. They are keen to talk to carers to truly understand how digital technologies might support your health needs. If you'd like to get involved and make your voice heard, please contact Andrew on Andrew.smart8@nhs.net

Carers Trust want your views

The Carers Trust want to make sure they are involving carers in their work meaningfully, to ensure they do reflect what carers need. They are running online sessions in October to hear your views. Interested? Please completed this form <https://forms.office.com/r/GcB1TLihui>
