

Join our focus group on residential care for older LGBTQ+ individuals

We are three queer researchers working for the Applied Research Collaboration Kent, Surrey and Sussex, and we are organising two online focus groups in which we are hoping to speak with older LGBTQ+ individuals who may move to residential care in the near future, who currently live in residential care in Kent, Surrey or Sussex, or carers of older LGBTQ+ individuals. In the focus group, we will discuss your experiences and views surrounding residential care, which we will use to develop a research project aiming to promote more inclusive care for older LGBTQ+ individuals. We have 6 spaces available for each focus group.
