

Former Carers

I am conducting research for the University of Liverpool on the experiences of bereaved family carers, who have lost the person they cared for.

This research will help to gain insight from the carers perspective and contribute to improving support for other bereaved carers in the future.

If you would like to share your experiences through a short interview, please contact me (Jessica Roberts) All interviews will be kept confidential.

Jessica Roberts

Email: hljrob12@liverpool.ac.uk

If you are unable to use email please contact

Warren Donellan (Principle Researcher): 0151 795 0647