

A day in the life of a Princess

So, in your opinion,
Do you think I need a pedicure

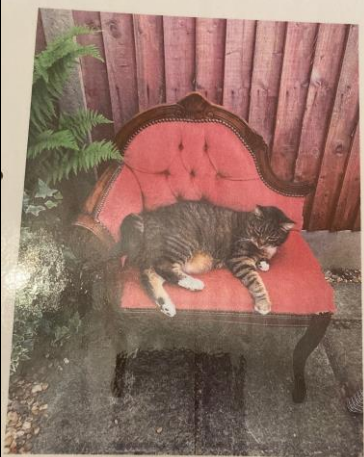

Tell me honestly,
Do you think it's too much.

What do you mean,
I'm going to the vet
have you seen where she puts her hands.

You are under my spell.
You will play Lazer with me
You will let me in a cot of the front door
You will have a chat at 5 AM.

Naturally, I like to guard the garden from intruders.
You never know what might be lurking in the fern behind me.

I should never have eaten that last bowl of Prawns followed by a pet of treats.

Lazy afternoon,
just hanging around.

Being responsible for the Neighbourhood watch,
Soot pushes one over the edge.

The end of another exhausting day having completed my Royal duties
